“ I will always remember the wood working projects we did together. All those spartan races, the trips to the amusement parks, going to all my choir concerts and field trips. It's hard for me to say goodbye. You were the one person I could speak my mind to. How we would show each other our accomplishments at that time. Playing the board games with Ryan and Jackie. Even the little things like watching tv together or talking about the upcoming spartan races; I will miss dearly. I'm glad we did those races together dad. I am thankful for all that you have shown me. I guess I am truly a "chip off the old block" as I wrote in a Father's Day project I did for you in the 3rd grade. I love you dad. Thank you for the love you gave to Ryan, Jackie, and me. I couldn't have asked for a better dad then you :) Rest In Peace Spartan. Aroo, Aroo, Aroo

“ I still can't say goodbye to you when I barely was able to say hello...my fondest memory of my brother is when he took me out to dance at our brother's Sal's and Belen's wedding

“ Victor Jimenez,
Un verdadero amigo y hermano, lo conocí en el track & field de WHS. El un año mayor que yo, recuerdo que el me ayudaba en matemáticas en la High School y en la universidad de SJSU. Los dos tomamos una clase de Calculus y pasamos noches enteras en desvela estudiando para los exámenes. Siempre sonriendo y nunca de mal humor. Cuando nos veíamos siempre nos daba gusto vernos. Después de graduación cada quien siguió su camino con su respectiva familia y ya no nos volvimos a ver, me duele tanto saber que ya pasó a mejor vida. Le pido a Dios que lo resiba en su santa gloria y que descanse en paz. Víctor y familia están en mis oraciones. Mi mas sentido pésame a la familia Jimenez.

“ Victor was part of a group of young men who came together for a brief moment. Our group was made up of individuals with like backgrounds but each was unique in his own special way. I remember Victor brought a sharp witty humor though not boisterous, he always kept us on our feet, waiting for the next joke or comment. Victor had a calmness about him. I can't remember ever hearing him get angry, though I am sure he like all of us had his moments. I remember the evenings when we would get together and cook up a meal at his apartment and talked about life's up downs. A good simple meal and great company during a hectic time in our lives when the future looked bright. These were some of the best times we spent together. Thank you for sharing a small part of your life with all of us. We are all connected even if it is for a short time. Be at peace Brother!

“ Victor - such a sweet and kind soul, gone too soon. You will be sorely missed my dear friend. I thank God for awarding me the opportunity to work with you at PSEMC. Thank you for always being one of the smartest people in the room! Thanks for the laughter, your kindness towards me and others, and for sharing a portion of your life with me. I am blessed because of it. May you Rest In Peace and may you find comfort in the loving arms of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Until your friends and family meet with you again.

Best,

“ My favorite memory was when Vic lived in Paulsen St. in Watsonville. I would go over and we would spend our nights making mix tapes on a 2 deck boombox. Yeah, we were high tech, Vic had the set-up that made it work though. For those nights, we thought we were DJs. I have to say we made some good mixtapes. When we needed a break, we would go and grab a burger "the original chicken sandwich" from BK (cause we wanted something other than McD's) and Vic always ordered it. So anytime I see a maxell "high bias" cassette tape it takes me back to those times. and if I happen to visit BK, you know what I will order. .... Thank you Vic! for the fun times. You left us to soon but I will always remember you. I hope your in peace.

“ Our beloved Uncle victor, my childhood consisted of being surrounded by the strongest, most intellectual, and the kindest men I ever knew. I will forever remember family gatherings and great food with even better company. I wish I could have said a proper goodbye but life doesn't work that way, tomorrow is never promised. You lived a life filled with people who love you and who will continue to do so till the end of time itself. I look forward to when I see you again uncle.

Love always, Lio

“ Hey Victor, I still can't believe that you are gone. You forever will be in our hearts and thoughts. Although destiny separated our paths at a young age I always looked up to you since the time you visited me in Mexico. Growing up I always imagined how my brothers were. How cool it would be if they were with me. Those two weeks you spent with me were by far the most awesome weeks of my entire childhood, I can promise you that. I was like a little puppy always with you and you never said no. You took me everywhere you went. That's the person you were, kind and thoughtful. Till we meet again bro! Please watch out for us. Love you!!

“ " Vic's, my heart is feeling pain that I have never experience before. I keep reminding my self that you are no longer in pain or suffering and for that I am at peace. I was blessed to be your little sister and for that I'm grateful because you were an AWESOME brother! I know you will stay close to us in spirit and forever live in our hearts! "

“ Uncle Vic is definitely one of the good ones. It's difficult to say "was" because it still feels like he is here. He had a good sense of humor. I remember my mom always tells me when I was younger he asked if I had an off switch because I talked a lot and I still do to this day. He even made fun of my name. He had a very kind heart. He really cared and always would give help when he could. He left too soon, but I know he is still here with us all. Making sure to help us stay on track and probably cracking a joke or two on the way. Tio I love you and I know this isn't a goodbye... more like a see you later. In my heart, always.. - Jessie.

“ While is not easy to swallow the fact that you've moved on, I happy GOD chose you as my brother. I'm 100% sure our grandparents are happy you have joined them, after all, you were their favorite. Your spirit lives on inside each on of us that were blessed to share in your journey. Until we meet again, love Big brother :-)
